

Dimond Ira
Hardcastle

WEST JORDAN- SANDY—Dimond Ira Hardcastle, 66, died June 6, 1990. Born October 24, 1923, in Sandy, Utah, to James Ira and LaVon E. Dimond Hardcastle. Married Vivian Jensen in the Salt Lake LDS temple, May 12, 1948. Graduate of Jordan High School. He was a farmer and loved the land. Worked at Kennecott Copper for 33 years in the shovel department, earning the "High Loader" award. His hobbies were gardening, woodworking and fishing; he loved the mountains, streams and lakes, and quietly helping his neighbors. Served in High Priest Quorum presidencies, stake MIA and Sunday School presidencies. Served a mission to the Atlanta, Georgia Temple, and was an ordinance worker in the Jordan River Temple.

Survived by wife; children, Thomas D. and Rosalie Hardcastle; Terry and Frank Powell; Peggy and Mont Margetts; Brent and Pat Hardcastle; Christine and Stephen Seddon; 11 grandchildren; mother; sisters and brothers, Ramona and Paul Madsen; Donna and David Gotberg; special friends.

We would like to thank the family who made possible a donor kidney, which gave us three additional years together. If desired, a donation may be given to the Kidney Foundation in lieu of flowers.

Funeral services will be Saturday, June 9, 1990 at 11 a.m. in the West Jordan 28th Ward Chapel, 2700 West 7000 South. Friends may call Friday 6-8 p.m. at Goff Mortuary, 8090 So. State, and Saturday at the church one hour prior to the services. Interment, Sandy City Cemetery.

16/8 N3 6/8

Dimond Ira
Hardcastle

WEST JORDAN- SANDY—Dimond Ira Hardcastle, 66, died June 6, 1990. Born October 24, 1923, in Sandy, Utah, to James Ira and LaVon E. Dimond Hardcastle. Married Vivian Jensen in the Salt Lake LDS temple, May 12, 1948. Graduate of Jordan High School. He was a farmer and loved the land. Worked at Kennecott Copper for 33 years in the shovel department, earning the "High Loader" award. His hobbies were gardening, woodworking and fishing; he loved the mountains, streams and lakes, and quietly helping his neighbors. Served in High Priest Quorum presidencies, stake MIA and Sunday School presidencies. Served a mission to the Atlanta, Georgia Temple, and was an ordinance worker in the Jordan River Temple.

Survived by wife; children, Thomas D. and Rosalie Hardcastle; Terry and Frank Powell; Peggy and Mont Margetts; Brent and Pat Hardcastle; Christine and Stephen Seddon; 11 grandchildren; mother; sisters and brothers, Ramona and Paul Madsen; Donna and David Gotberg; special friends.

We would like to thank the family who made possible a donor kidney, which gave us three additional years together. If desired, a donation may be given to the Kidney Foundation in lieu of flowers.

Funeral services will be Saturday, June 9, 1990 at 11 a.m. in the West Jordan 28th Ward Chapel, 2700 West 7000 South. Friends may call Friday 6-8 p.m. at Goff Mortuary, 8090 So. State, and Saturday at the church one hour prior to the services. Interment, Sandy City Cemetery.

T 6/8 N3 6/8

